

Seasonal Staff – Kitchen Porters/Warehouse Staff

Job Description:

As a seasonal staff you could be asked to work on all types of Zest functions: conferences, weddings, events and cafe work. You will ensure that the Kitchen and front of house are fully supported in loading all correct stock and clearing/cleaning during and at the end of the event. Your role will be dependent upon what the event is and what support is needed. You must have an understanding and follow correct health, hygiene and safety procedures and understand HACCP before using any chemicals or cleaning substances.

You may be asked to work in our Bedfordshire based warehouse, cleaning and checking stock back in, operating the dishwasher / glass washer machines. Hand washing of cooking equipment.

Must have:

A can do attitude

The ability to learn on your feet

The ability to multitask and take direction

A comprehensive understanding of English

Ability to exert physical effort in carrying of food and equipment

Able to work under pressure during busy periods

How to apply:

Please send your CV and covering letter stating your experience and availability to info@thezestgroup.com with Seasonal Staff –Warehouse in the subject box. Successful candidates will be required to carry out shift work

The Zest Group:

The Zest Group is a leading hospitality company that works for clients based all over England. Our core business is catering, equipment hire and venue sourcing. Zest was formed by Managing Director Steven Hancock in 2004. Zest key clients are Bletchley Park, English Heritage and a number of London's leading venues. Our catering business is a mix between weddings and corporate functions including award dinners, day to day meetings and launches.